Foreword

I am sure that many of us have had the fond dream of some day being able to visit Hawaii. Although this dream may not come true for most of us, it is the Spartana Staff's hope that in choosing Hawaii as the theme of our 1960 yearbook, our readers may be able to catch a glimpse of the Islands of Enchantment.

To the Class of 1960, especially, as you turn the pages of this book, it is our desire that the beauty and serenity of the Islands may color your cherished memories of the precious days you have spent at Springfield High School.

CLASS PROPHECY

On Wednesday, the twenty-fifth of July, 1970, at 2:40 P.M., Superior Captain DAN WARDER made straight for the bridge of his ship, the S.S. Spartana, to investigate some disturbances reported by First Mate JAY ABERCROMBIE. On investigation, he found JACK EVANS, RAYMOND WRIGHT, DIO GRANT, HAROLD BRAGG, and JOE HORVATH in a raging game of Old Maids. Disciplining them, he sent them to scrub down the deck where they found MARGIE KELLY, SANDY MORELEY, LANA CLIVER, and SHERRILL LEWIS sun bathing.

Meanwhile, a party of eight, SANDY DURMAN, SALLY MILLS, SHARON HATHCOX, BILLETТА HILLIS, ROBERT LeMASTER, GERRY SCHROCK, TOM PIGGOTT, and JOHN FINLAW, enjoyed pineapple juice and Poi. RUSTY DRUMMOND and BEVERLY SPENCER were making their way to the gym to watch a shuffleboard tournament. CAROL GRIFFIN, ENGINE SHANDOR, JOAN LIMBURG, and WAYLAND RITZMAN were competing in the final round. JUDY HILL, LINDA NEUBERT, MARTHA JOHNSON, and PEGGY DYKES were keeping the ping-pong table busy, while REGINA RIBLETT kept official score. MARY MARTIN, VINCE RUSSELL, WARREN MILLER, JERRY HALMAN, JERRY CAIN, and JAMES DIEHL were engrossed spectators.

Later that evening MARY ROGISH, DON McFARLAND, NANCY WITWER, BOB PITZ, JOANN DRENNEN, BOB SIMPSON, MARGIE HALE, and RONNIE JUSTICE went to the ballroom where they danced to the music of CLARK VAN SCYOC and his orchestra consisting of GEORGE FARRIS, CHESTER MOLNAR, TIM CAMPFIELD, PAUL BRANNON, and ROGER SYX. DEL HUNT pleased all with his saxophone solos, while SYBIL BELL delighted everyone with her singing.

Most of the passengers retired early to get ready for the busy day ahead.

When the passengers awoke, they were greeted by softly blowing breezes. Their first glimpse was that of beautiful islands. The boat docked to the accompaniment of strains of strumming guitars. As the passengers disembarked, they were greeted in the usual Hawaiian way with leis given to them by BARBARA DEPIZZOL, PAT GARDUNO, LOIS HOUSEMAN, and ALBERTA ELLIS.

That evening NANCY and CAROL JENKINS, LOUIS IGLEHEART, RONNIE REED, MARCIA SMITH, and DON KAPITY attended a luau given in their honor by CAROL JAMES, JANET KULIC, JUDY CASTELLO, DARLENE MILHOAN, JIM DRUMMOND, JAMES DARRAH, JACK PRICE, and CHARLES PARKS.

Most of the tourists stayed at the "Waikiki," a well-known hotel, owned by RICHARD LOHR. They started toward their suites for what they thought would be a restful night, but little did they know what was to transpire. Hotel manager, WAYNE SHAKAN, and his assistant, JEAN WILSON, were escorting the guests to their rooms, when to the surprise of all, they discovered CARL WEBB stumbling down the hall in his sleep! One person sleepwalking was not so bad, but they soon found that he was being followed by LINDA WEISS, JUDY JOHNSON, RITA WHITED, SHARON SHARP, SANDY SZARAZ, YVONNE TUMLIN, RUTH VOYTKO, VICKIE WILKINSON, and SUE ANKENY, who had formed a conga line. Mr. Shakan escorted them back to their rooms, thinking everything was under control, and peace reigned once more.

The next day was beautiful, just perfect for swimming and water skiing. At the beach DALE FRALEY showed his ability to fall off a surfboard with amazing grace while lifeguard GEORGE HARRIS watched over the various activities. These were made pleasant by the fashionable bathing suits worn by BECKY MILLIN, CHERYL GOODRICH, PAT HELLER, PAT FUNK, KAREN WILLISON, RITA WARMAN, and PAT KLAINER. BOB SPENCE, ROCKY RICHARDSON, DAVE SHAFFER, JOY WESTFALL, SUNNY BAKER, and LINDA HEISA were seen enjoying water skiing. JULIA REICH, MARY REYNOLDS, NANCY HAFT, CAROLYN JOHNSON, SHIRLEY PUTNAM, JOYCE MAUPIN, and BARBARA HARRISON devoted their time to tossing a flashy beach ball back and forth. On down the beach, ED WISE, DAVE WILLIAMS, DREXEL TABOR, CLIFF PANDER, LESLIE GOLEC, and CLARK GRAFTON were engaged in coconut bombings while in a nearby tree, DEANNA DABEL, SANDY BOURN, SHARON HECKART, BONNIE MANGUS, DOROTHY LOFTIS, and JACKIE LANGE ate bananas and drank coconut juice.

Further down the beach, DICK LAUBSCHER, DAVID HERTZOG, ALAN BORING, PATTI HATHAWAY, JANET FLINT, DIANNE CHURCH, LYNN FIELD, GERALDINE JOHNSON, and JUDY LAMBERT watched JUDY CARVER model the latest in grass skirts. On down the street, JOAN SCHROCK, ERMA EARLENBAUGH, ALICE ADAMS, DICK ANKENY, RONNIE ROWLAND, DAN DETWILER, and FRANK NEMET were watching some natives dig for clams.

On the mountain slopes, CECILE VANNOY, CAROL REID, LINDA PRYOR, LYNN CARNEY, RONNIE AUSTIN, GERALD ROGERS, and BOB GIBSON found grass sledding an enjoyable sport.

Later on the beach, SCOTT ANDRICK, LLOYD MARTIN, ED STEWART, FLOYD FOUTS, BILL LICHTENBERGER, BILL O'DONNELL, ROBERT DEAN, and RONNIE CONNER took part in the outrigger canoe races. Among the spectators were JUDY BITTINGER, DORLADENE ALLEN, JOHN UNDERWOOD, GLENN BARKER, and PAUL CERNAVA.

That evening, the festivities centered around Hawaiian dancing. Taking part were JACKIE LORAH, JUDY KNOTTS, CAROLE ALTHOFF, CAROLYN RAMSEY, and NORMA RANKIN. DORRY SAUNDERS, KAY HARTMAN, ELIZABETH BOGGS, MARY HOLMES, and many others enjoyed it very much. Soon a very pleasant aroma filled the air. When the aroma was investigated, it was found that RAYMOND and RONALD ROBINSON, world-famous chefs, had prepared a most delicious meal. CHARLES SMITH, EUGENE HAWKINS, RICHARD HOLT, and ARTHUR MARTIN found the food most enjoyable.

To the end our Hawaiian trip, JUNE EMERSON conducted a luau. Assisting her were WILLENE COREY, CAROLYN PRESSLER, MARLA MORGAN, JUDY MCKINNEY, JANICE WHITE, KATHLEEN ZEHNER, and RUTH SCHREIBER. Afterwards, ROY PENWELL sang some Hawaiian songs while SUE SLEVIN, CINDY KNIGHT, DAVID MORGAN, ALAN FOWLER, WILMA JOHNSON, CAROL CRITES, KAAREN HUGHES, and RONNIE BARRON listened attentively.

As the sun slowly sinks in the west, the S. S. Spartana leaves this enchanted island to return to our everyday lives. ALOHA!

CO-OP

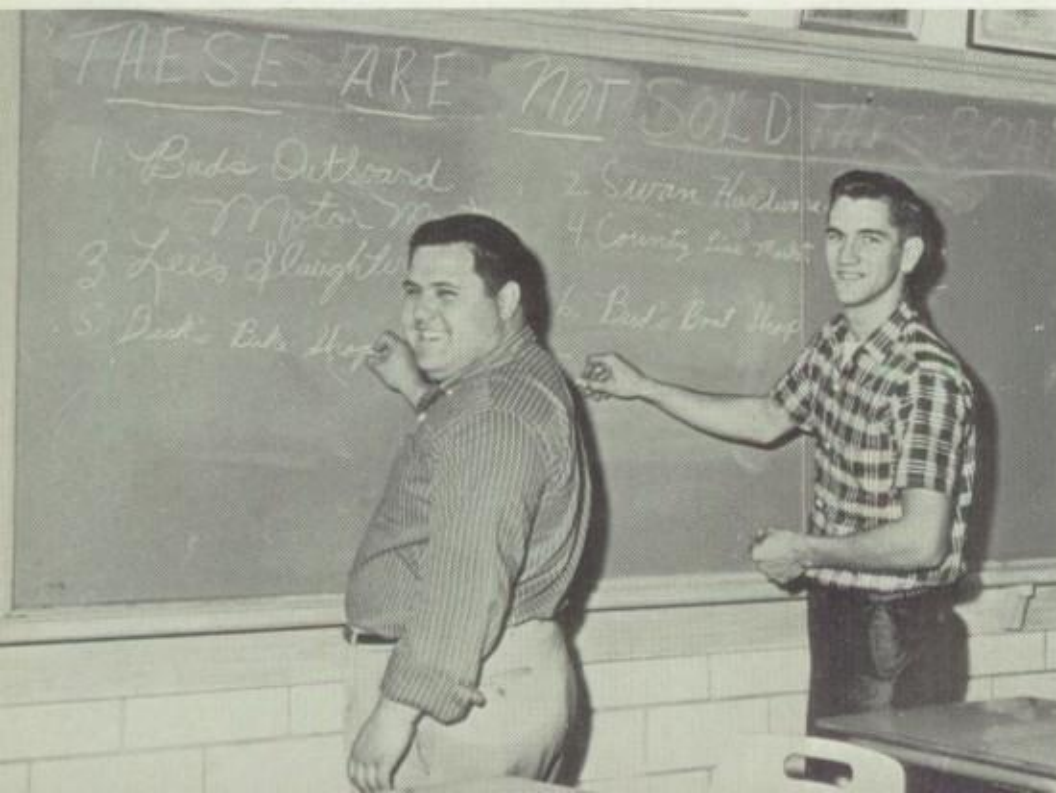

Distributive Education, known as CO-OP, provides practical vocational instruction and part-time work experience in the business field. The program is open only to seniors. Each student is enrolled in Business Management and Sales and Retailing in addition to his required courses. The student must be employed at least 15 hours per week to secure his practical job experience.

Early in the fall the entire class attends a one-day convention along with 16 other CO-OP programs in the area. In February, four delegates compete at a State Convention and the winners go to the National DECCA Convention and compete on a National level.

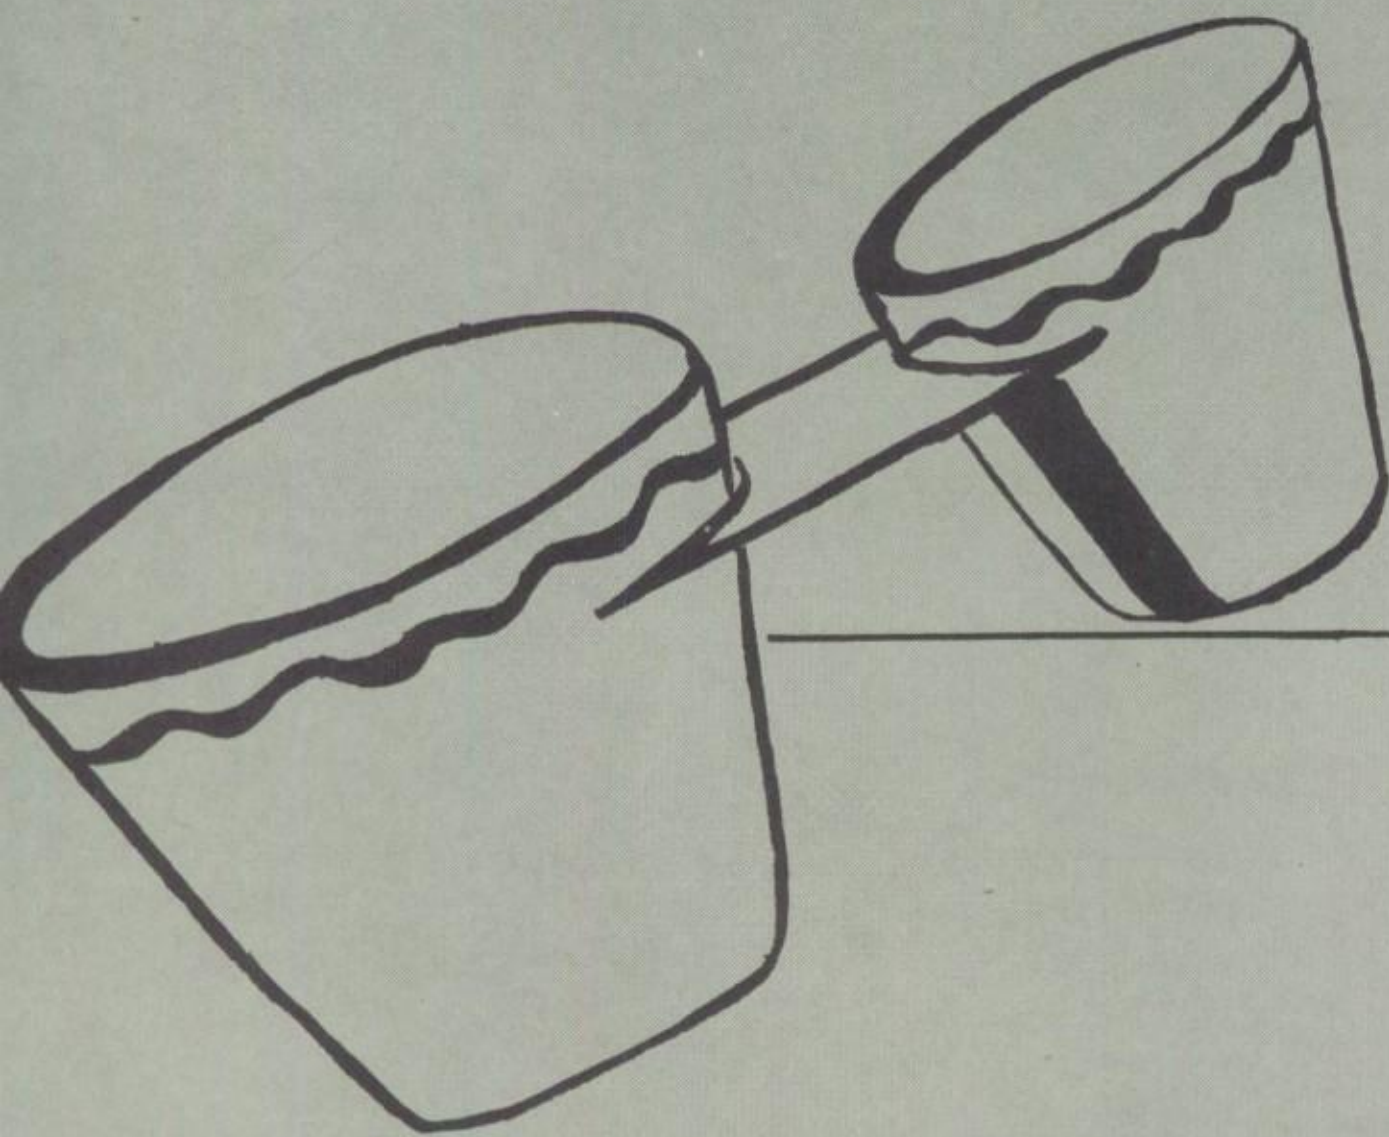

Each year the class sells the advertising for their yearbook, the Spartana.

Officers of CO-OP are Bob LeMaster, president; Dave Shaffer, vice-president; Sharon Heckart, secretary; and Sandra Szaraz, treasurer. High salesmen in yearbook ads were Sandra Szaraz and Gerry Schrock.

Have many duties—and none do they shirk.

Our theme is Hawaii; thus leis are their style.

Hoping our book will be timely and smart,
These girls are helping Joan do the art.

Once in the highlands of Scotland, two hunters discover an enchanted Scottish town which appears suddenly in a valley of mist. The members of Mixed Chorus, accompanied by June Emerson and Judy Castello, brought to life the story of "Brigadoon." The cast delighted the audience with their singing and dancing in the colorful production.

"Tommy" and "Fiona," as portrayed by Dave Lipscomb and Judy Dillon, provided the romantic interest, while "Harry" and "Maggie," portrayed by Bob Stringer and Joy Kirk, starred in the dancing roles. Student director Jean Wilson, musical director B. Neil Davis, and choreographer Mrs. Jo Ann Bridge were amply rewarded for their efforts with the success of the Music Department's first such endeavor.
